

Adult Children of Alcoholics/
Dysfunc4onal Families

Libertyville Monday Night ACoA Group

It's Our 26th Anniversary! Let's Celebrate!!!

When: Monday, April 13, 2015 at 7pm

Where: St. Lawrence Episcopal Church, 125 West Church St, Libertyville

Dr. Janice A. Van Niel will speak on:
“How do you love an addict who is not able to love you back?”

Dr. Janice A. Van Niel earned her Psy.D. from Forest Institute of Professional Psychology in 1987. She is licensed in Illinois and Wisconsin and is a member of the National Register of Health Service Providers in Psychology.

Dr. Van Niel's theoretical orientations are: cognitive/behavioral, psychodynamic, and Transactional Analysis (TA). She is also trained in Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR). She has extensive experience treating adults, individually and in relationships (including marital issues). Dr. Van Niel is in general practice and has treated patients suffering from, among other issues, Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), mood disorders, dual diagnosis, adjustment disorders and anxiety.

Her outlook is that the diverse spiritual and holistic aspects of people are critical and must be equally developed and respected.

Everyone is Welcome!!! This meeting is open to significant others, family, friends and anyone who wonders what we do every Monday night.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting

Need more info? Contact Don – aca.newday@gmail.com

St. Lawrence Episcopal Church is located one block west of Milwaukee Av., across the street from the Cook Memorial Library in Libertyville. Park behind the church and enter through the double doors on your left. The meeting is downstairs. In addition, we hold regular ACoA meetings every Monday night at 7pm.

For info about ACoA visit www.acoa---libertyville.org

Please Post / Forward this flyer to whoever will benefit. Thanks!